3e (empower encourage engage)

Training course | 09/05/2022–19/05/2022 | in ΘΕΣΣΑΛΟΝΙΚΗ, Greece

Main activities: Inputs related to media literacy incorporate: digital tools pros & cons; the role of media, types of media; journalism and its values; critical thinking: analyzing arguments, textual analysis of news article; fake news, its types, elements.
Activities are designed with non formal education and learning by doing methodology, which includes: group contract, personal learning plan, role playing, brainstorming, feedback, plenary sessions, team work, individual and group plenary presentations, group reflection and diaries. It also covers non-formal education, Youthpass as a tool for recognition of youth work in Europe and reflection on acquired competencies; networking, project management basics, and space for designing the follow-up activities in local communities.
The location enabled to enrich the program with an educational visit to the Municipality of Thessaloniki and presentation of local youth council; a scavenger hunt exploring locals' opinions on the topic of media literacy; and a visit to local radio and TV.

Main outcomes: During the TC the participants unfold their skills and acquire new ones in the following fields: use of digital technologies, critical thinking, active citizenship at the local/regional / international level, creativity, innovation and entrepreneurship.
On the spot, participants connected with Thessaloniki inhabitants and locally raised awareness on the topics of media literacy and civic engagement during field studies and TV-radio visits. Back in their local communities, each country-team got the task of sharing the skills learned in the training course in the form of a workshop for youth. The multiplying effect of 3E reached directly a total of nearly 200 people in 10 countries, and much more worldwide through the videos and press releases.
The next step is the production of a manual compiling all the knowledge gathered during the process.
